

CATHOLIC HEALTHCARE AS EXPRESSION OF THE MISSION OF JESUS CHRIST

- I. The Catholic healthcare ministry, then, is called to:
 - a. reveal the reign of God
 - b. to bring about the reign of God
 - c. to be sacrament of healing
 - sacrament and the Catholic worldview

- II. What this looks like:
 - a. From my last experience of Catholic healthcare, three characteristics of the ministry are:
 - i.
 - ii.
 - ii.

 - b. One person who represents the ministry of Catholic healthcare is:

 - c. Because:

- III. Implications of being called to participate in and be responsible for the Catholic healthcare ministry
 - a. For the ministry
 - b. For the community
 - c. For the Church
 - d. For myself

- IV. Video - “A Shared Statement of Identity for the Catholic Health Ministry” by Catholic Health Association